

GERONTOLOGY: CAREGIVING CERTIFICATE

The Gerontology: Caregiving Certificate prepares students for employment as a formal caregiver in a variety of settings, including residential care facilities, adult day care, and home care. The certificate also prepares students for informal caregiving of family members and other older adults. Community caregivers provide direct care to persons with chronic conditions, disabilities, and/or dementia and also to other individuals who need non-medical personal care including assistance with Activities of Daily Living (ADLs). The Gerontology: Caregiving Certificate will be awarded for the completion of three courses for a total of 9 units.
